decline for the Southwesterns was general, but not particularly marked. The Northern Pacifics are still sustained by an unseen hand, and Oregon and Transcontinental, after opening at 10 1/2, rose to 17 1/2. Western Union was weak, and declined 2 per cent to 6 1/4 and closed at 6 1/4. The market closed weak at the slight recovery.

The dealings in State bonds were confined to small sales of Louisiana issues; the 6s sold at 42 and the 4 1/2s at 47 1/2. Of city bank stocks the Irons and Traders' sold at 265 and American at 171.

The business in railroad bonds was not large, although it covered a great variety of issues. The market was weak, but the decline was not heavy except in some issues. Erie second consols were inactive, but opening steady at 83 1/2, they declined to 82 1/2 and closed
